

Application for Veterinarians Without Borders Veterinary Student Scholarship

Completed applications must be submitted by 15th August 2023, 12:00 pm (PST) to info@vetswithoutborders.ca.

The Veterinary Student scholarship 2023 is open to veterinary students who:

- Applicant must be accepted and enrolled full-time in veterinary school in Canada.
- Applicant is a resident of the NWT, Yukon or Nunavut and have resided in the territory for at least the last two years
- Applicant has demonstrated interest in one health and/or growing access to care in remote communities. Community involvement desirable.
- Applicant intends to work in the territories upon completion of their studies.
- The successful recipient agrees to support VWB through: a speaking engagement and/or presentation at summit, one annual activity in the north during studies, and speaking with communications officer at VWB to highlight their commitment within the year of the scholarship.
- Applications must include all the requested documentation and be submitted as PDF files.

Full name

Telephone Number

Email Address

Address

Territory

Indigenous status

Inuit

Status Indian/First Nations

Non-status Indian/First Nations

Metis

Not applicable

Our scholarship prioritizes Indigenous candidates. If you wish to declare your Indigenous heritage, please check the box that applies to you. NOTE: This is voluntary to check.

Veterinary faculty information

Name of the faculty of veterinary medicine:

Name of the current dean of the veterinary faculty:

Full address and phone number of the faculty:

Link (URL) to the faculty website:

Current year and semester:

Tell us a bit about yourself. (advised word count of 200 words).

How have you been involved with animal health in your community? (advised word count of 100 words).

Describe the need for access to animal health care in your community (advised word count of 100 words).

Why is veterinary care important to you as a resident from the territories? (advised word count of 200 words).

How do you hope to apply your skills to increase access to animal health in the north? (advised word count of 200 words).

Describe what the VWB scholarship means to you and how you would use the scholarship money to support your study and/or develop research or community projects (advised word count of 200 words).

Please provide the following documents with your application:

1. A certificate from your university regarding your registration for the 2023 – 2024 academic year (including date and official stamp)
2. A declaration regarding your current academic status signed by the school secretariat (click here to download the declaration form).
3. One academic and one personal reference, we recommend one from your dean/professor and one from a member in your community.

I declare that: *

All information provided in this application, including any supplemental information required to establish my eligibility, is true and complete.

I have read and understood the eligibility requirements and obligations of the scholarship as stated in the scholarship application.

I will immediately notify Veterinarians Without Borders, in writing if I withdraw from studies or of any changes to my name, address, academic status or study period, or to any other information contained in the Application.

Today's date

Signature

Incomplete applications and applications received after the deadline will be automatically rejected.